

Advisory Session

Hitachi Solutions AI Opportunity Radar

Unlock the potential of AI for your business in a tailored half-day workshop, hosted at our London office or delivered on-site at your premises. Our experts will help you uncover the most valuable opportunities and shape a clear path forward.

What to expect:

- A deep-dive with your product owner to understand your goals.
- Interactive sessions exploring vision, strategy, challenges, and opportunities.

What you'll get:

A tailored output deck with a summary of your vision, existing challenges, an AI opportunity radar, and recommended next steps (e.g. AI design sprint, data maturity assessment).
